REC-85

CIA, by liaison, advised Bureau of desire to contact captioned [PSI] in connection with its Cuban operations. (c) CIA of opinion [PSI] is in position to assist in the (c) establishment of courier routes between U.S. and its contacts in Cuba. (c) Contact of [PSI] by CIA being held in (c) abeyance pending Bureau's approval. (c)

Bureau's position in this matter flexible. We can refuse CIA authority to contact [PSI] or we can let (c) CIA operate [PSI] on its own. We can also serve as inter- (c) mediary between [the PSI] and CIA. (c)

Promptly contact [PSI] and discreetly ascertain if he is in position and willing to assist in establishing courier routes. (c) Do not advise [PSI] of CIA's connection at (c) this time. For information, CIA believes [PSI] able to (c) establish such a system because of his employment with Cubana Airlines in New York City, and fact he is in contact with persons regularly traveling to Cuba. Furnish Bureau results of your contact with [PSI]. (c) In event [PSI] is in position (c) to assist in the establishment of a courier system and (c) willing to do so, you should furnish your observations concerning [PSI's] proposed use in this matter. [he has made available copies of incoming and outgoing manifests of Cubana flights between New York and Havana. New York has pointed out that [PSI] has not furnished data of unusual value; but because of his position, has a good potential. CIA advised Liaison Agent Papich it would not contact [PSI] until it had received authority to do so from Bureau. Before allowing CIA to make contact with [PSI], it is believed it would be best for our interests to determine if [PSI] can actually assist CIA. If he is in position to assist that Agency, we will then consider what stand to take in this matter. (C)
